

NEAC
Network of European Active Citizens

in-Service Training Course
Nemours - December 5, 2008

What is NEAC?

Is an international, non profit Organization whose aim is to stimulate a broader consciousness in participation of people for the choices and strategies of developing a democratic culture.

The Association engages itself to act to value, spread and use any creative expressive way, and therefore will activate, at national and international level, programmes for information and training.

By means of promotional adhesions, partnerships and synergies, an infrastructure with the network has been formed, this is able to contribute to the growing of individuals, associations and groups and give important contributions to the European Citizen development
